

Thursday, March 31, 2016

From: Clay Holtzman, Director, Communications & Public Affairs

Maine Medical Center's Official Statement on March 29 Patient Death

Maine Medical Center continues to cooperate with police and other authorities who are conducting the required reviews of the death of an admitted patient who fell from the sixth floor of the Richards Building on Tuesday evening. We continue to be focused on doing what is most appropriate and respectful for the family involved, as well as our staff and other patients who have been affected by this incident.

#