

March 3, 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

You Dine. We Donate. Good eating for a great cause!

Portland, ME – Nosh Kitchen Bar and Slab Sicilian Street Food are proud to partner with The Barbara Bush Children's Hospital for the month of March by contributing a minimum of $10,000 or five percent of their sales to the hospital. Restaurant co-owners Matt Moran, Jason Loring, Stephen Lanzalotta, Tobey Moulton and Emily Kingsbury realize the importance of being active in the community and giving back to the people that support them daily.

Matt Moran said: "A big part of our business is families coming to our restaurants to dine together. It's special to see that bond, and we want to help keep families happy and healthy. Supporting an award-winning hospital is of utmost importance to us, so please help us raise as much as possible for this great cause!"

Dr. John Bancroft, Chief of Pediatrics at The Barbara Bush Children's Hospital, said of the partnership: "As we celebrate the 20th anniversary of The Barbara Bush Children's Hospital at Maine Medical Center, we are truly proud of the care that we provide for children in northern New England but know that our work is not done. Support from local establishments such as Nosh Kitchen Bar and Slab Sicilian Street Food helps us to transform the way we provide health care to children in Maine."

For more information about You Dine. You Donate. and restaurant locations, hours and directions, visit www.mmc.org/youdinewedonate

For more information about The Barbara Bush Children's Hospital at Maine Medical Center, visit www.mmc.org/bbch

For more information about Nosh Kitchen Bar, and Slab Sicilian Street Food, visit Nosh Kitchen Bar: <http://www.noshkitchenbar.com/> and Slab Sicilian Street Food: <http://www.slabportland.com/>

###