

Dear Valued Client,

In our continued effort to support your COVID-19 diagnostic capacity, the FDA recently approved a six month extension to the VTM/NP kit. Many clients are in possession of the BioSci kits, lot FB2019E with an expiration date of 2021-11-13. With the six month extension, the new expiration date is 2022-05-13. This extension is based on an 18 month stability study that was submitted to the FDA.

Should you have any questions or would like to review the stability study data please let me know.

Sincerely,

Robert Carlson, MD
